

Goods, Kilkenny

Located in the heart of one of Ireland's most vibrant cities, W.H. Good Ltd or 'Goods of Kilkenny' as it is known was founded in 1927 by William Henry Good, who first opened a small shoe shop at no.90 High Street. Later the store grew and expanded to include clothing and linens

During the sixties his son, Vivian Good joined the business and the expansion and development of the store continued for what was to become a 5 decade period, seeing the addition of a basement in 1977 to house the expanding shoe business and in the early 1990's the extension of the second floor along with the addition of a lift to service all four floors

These additions increased the stores retail space to 20,000 sq ft consolidating Goods' position as Kilkenny's leading Department store

In 2004 Goods underwent a major refurbishment and refocusing program which saw the whole store being refitted and modernised as well as the addition of some top national and international brands. The store now focuses on fashion, cosmetics, footwear and accessories for stylish women of all ages

Mastectomy Services

“Life After Mastectomy – A Personal Story”

Sue Jordan was diagnosed with Breast Cancer in May 2006 and had her breast removed one week later.

Mary Massey, specialist prosthesis fitter with Goods, shows what is involved in fitting for a breast prosthesis. With 25 years experience in prosthesis fittings, Mary offers practical advice and support to women following a mastectomy

Mastectomy Fitting Service

For women who have had a full or partial mastectomy, the selection and fitting of suitable breast prostheses is a vital part of the return to normal life. Mary Massey, our specialist in prosthesis fitting, can assist in the selection and fitting of prosthesis in a sensitive and confidential manner