

Irish Mothers Spend 48 Hours Preparing and Cooking Traditional Christmas Dinner

Irish mothers can spend up to 48 hours preparing and cooking the traditional Christmas Dinner. To save precious time, cut down on food waste and reduce stress on the most celebrated day of the year, Christmas Made Easy provides a home delivery service from a choice of delicious festive dinner menus, prepared by award winning Irish chefs.

“Cooking Christmas Dinner can be a stressful, expensive and a time consuming experience. Ingredients for the traditional Christmas dinner for 6 adults can cost over €400” says Hazel McFadden, of Christmas Made Easy. “Our home delivered Christmas dinner is completely stress-free with no waste. We have sourced the best of local produce and use only the finest ingredients. All the time pressed cook needs to do is cook and serve”.

Arranged online or with one phone call, Christmas Made Easy is the ultimate hassle free Christmas dinner, with all the trimmings. All the hard work is taken care of, vegetables are peeled and chopped, soups and sauces are made allowing you to present an impressive mouth-watering feast. Foolproof instructions are provided along with a time plan, ensuring less time in a hot kitchen and more time with family and friends.

A passion for food inspired husband and wife team, Neil and Hazel McFadden to create Christmas Made Easy. Neil is an award winning chef who has worked in some of the finest Michelin starred restaurants in Europe, while Hazel has trained at the world famous Ballymaloe Cookery School in Cork and now teaches at the new cookery school at Howth Castle.

Christmas Made Easy delivers a range of menus from the traditional Ham & Turkey to the alternative tasty Dry Aged Angus Beef Rib Roast or Free range Goose. Christmas Made Easy home deliveries are available in a number of sizes, from an intimate dinner for two up to 10-12 dinner guests. Prices start from €32.50 per person.
